Towards A Life of Dignity for All
Part 2: Stakeholder Engagement Policy
Decides that the governing body will ensure the active participation of all relevant stakeholders, particularly those from developing countries, drawing on best practices and models from relevant multilateral institutions and will explore new mechanisms to promote transparency and the effective engagement of civil society in its work and that of its subsidiary bodies, inter alia by:

– Developing by 2014 a process for stakeholder accreditation and participation that builds on the existing rules of procedure and takes into account inclusive modalities of the Commission of Sustainable Development and other relevant United Nations bodies;

– Establishing by 2014 mechanisms and rules for stakeholders expert input and advice;

– Enhancing by 2014 working methods and processes for informed discussions and contributions by all relevant stakeholders towards the intergovernmental decision making process;

Expert input and advice

Towards A Life of Dignity for All
• In-depth Discussion of the Stakeholder Engagement Policy and Rule 69 of Rules of Procedures by member states since the 2013 Governing Council

• Input from Major Groups and Stakeholders and Experts was considered

• No final agreement among member states, discussion will be continued at the UNEA, in the Working Group on Rules of Procedures.

Towards A Life of Dignity for All
Accomplishments

• Participation of MGS in all meetings of UNEA and Subsidiary Organs (including CPR) (18 a)
• The right for oral and written interventions during such meetings and the opportunity to propose through the secretariat agenda items for UNEA (18f)
• Recognition of the important role of environmental NGOs within the nine Major Groups (11)
• A call for more inclusiveness with respect to the nine Major Groups, by promoting the participation of other stakeholders such as local communities, volunteer groups and foundations, migrants and families, older persons, persons with disabilities etc. (11)
• Accreditation for organisations working at national level those with ECOSOC accreditation (12)

• Major Groups and Stakeholder Fora in conjunction with OECPR and UNEA (20)

• The right of MGS to self-organise their representation towards UNEP (8.5, 22)

• Acknowledgement of the importance of the use of modern information and communication technology, including to substitute physical presence at meetings (23)
Open Issues

Accreditation:
• Criteria and process (Para 11 – 16, rule 69)
• Who approves list of accredited organisations and when does such an approval take place? (Para 15, rule 69)

Access-to-documents:
• Which information is accessible for accredited stakeholders (beyond what is spelled out in UNEP’s access-to-information policy (Para 18 d, rule 69)

Meetings with the Bureaux:
• Informal meetings of the UNEA/OECPR bureaus with MGS representatives (Para 26)
1. UNEA adopts the policy based on consensus by member states

2. UNEA adopts the policy, except for the text in brackets. Parts in brackets may be reopened at a future session of the UNEA. UNEP will apply agreed regulations and continue to apply current rules and practices for topics not agreed.

3. UNEA does not adopt the policy. UNEA may request the Executive Director, in consultation with CPR, to further prepare the draft policy for submission to the second session of the UNEA. Current rules and practices continue to be applied by UNEP.
