First Meeting of the Contracting Parties to the Convention for the Protection of the Mediterranean Sea against Pollution and its related Protocols

DRAFT RULES OF PROCEDURE

for

Meetings and Conferences of the Contracting Parties to the Convention for the Protection of the Mediterranean Sea against Pollution and its related Protocols

Introduction

The following draft rules of procedure for Meetings and Conferences of the Contracting Parties to the Convention for the Protection of the Mediterranean Sea against Pollution and its related Protocols were prepared by a working group which met during the Meeting of Experts on the Mediterranean Trust Fund and other Institutional and Financial Matters, Geneva, 18 - 22 September 1978.

The working group stressed that the draft rules were put forward for discussion and strongly recommended that they be closely examined before being adopted in final form by the first meeting of the Contracting Parties.

In particular, the working group noted:

(a) that in accordance with Article 18 of the Convention the rules of procedure were drafted to apply to Meetings and Conferences of the Contracting Parties;
(ii)

(b) that rules 5 to 8 concerning invitations to the Meetings and Conferences of the Contracting Parties were studied with particular attention in order to take into account:

- the specific aims of the Convention and Protocols and of the Mediterranean Action Plan as a whole;

- the unique interest and unquestionable right of the coastal States to safeguard their marine environment;

- the small number of coastal States; and finally,

- the need to keep the Meetings and Conferences of the Contracting Parties as efficient and effective as possible.

(c) that brackets appeared in rule 41 since the Contracting Parties should decide whether a Contracting Party should be automatically denied the right to vote if it is in arrears of its contribution or whether the Contracting Parties should expressly decide to deny such a Contracting Party the right to vote; and

(d) that although it is hoped that the rule of consensus will prevail in all meetings, the Contracting Parties should decide upon the majority required for decisions, recommendations, and resolutions as foreseen in rule 42.

These draft rules of procedure are now being submitted to the first meeting of the Contracting Parties for consideration with a view to their final adoption.

All working documents of the Meeting or Conference and all reports, resolutions, recommendations and decisions of the Meetings or Conferences shall be drawn up in one of the official languages and translated into the other three official languages.

Rule 30

Two-thirds of the Contracting Parties shall constitute a quorum.

Rule 31

In addition to exercising the powers conferred upon him elsewhere by the Rules, the President shall declare the opening and the closing of the Meeting or of the Conference. He shall direct the discussions, ensure the observance of these rules, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions resulting from the votes.
Rule 32

Proposals and amendments shall normally be introduced in writing by the Contracting Parties and handed to the Secretariat which shall circulate copies to delegations. As a general rule, no proposal shall be discussed or put to the vote at any sitting unless copies of it have been circulated to delegations not later than the day preceding the sitting. The President may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of amendments or of motions as to procedure even though these amendments and motions have not been circulated or have only been circulated the same day.

Rule 33

Subject to the provisions of Rule 31 the following motions shall have precedence, in the order indicated below, over all other proposals or motions before the meeting:

1. to suspend a sitting;
2. to adjourn a sitting;
3. to adjourn the debate on the question under discussion; and
4. for the closure of the debate on the question under discussion.

Permission to speak on a motion falling within 1 to 4 above shall be granted only to the proposer and in addition, to one speaker in favour of and two against the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 34

If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Meeting or Conference, unless it decides otherwise, shall vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted.

Rule 35

Parts of a proposal or amendment thereto shall be voted on separately if the President, with the consent of the proposer, so decides, or if any representative of a Contracting Party requests that the proposal or amendment thereto be divided and the proposer raises no objection. If objection is raised, permission to speak on the point shall be given first to the mover of the motion to divide the proposal or amendment, and then to the mover of the original proposal or amendment under discussion, after which the motion to divide the proposal or amendment shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 36

Those parts of a proposal which have been approved shall then be put to the vote as a whole; if all the operative parts of a proposal or amendment have been rejected, the proposal or amendment shall be considered to be rejected as a whole.

Rule 37

A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from, or revises parts of, that proposal. An amendment shall be voted on before the proposal to which it relates is put to the vote, and if the amendment is adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted on.

Rule 38

If two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the Meeting or Conference shall first vote on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, then on the amendment next to furthest removed therefrom, and so on, until all amendments have been put to the vote. The President shall determine the order of voting on the amendments under this rule.

Rule 39

A motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has begun, provided that the motion has not been amended or that an amendment to it is not under discussion. A motion withdrawn may be reintroduced by any other Contracting Party.

Rule 40

When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same sitting, unless the Meeting or the Conference, by a simple majority of the Contracting Parties present and voting, decides in favour of reconsideration. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and one other supporter, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.
Voting

Rule 41

1. Subject to the provisions of Article 19 of the Convention, each Contracting Party shall have one vote.

2. Unless decided otherwise or if the Meeting so decides, a Contracting Party that is more than twenty-four months in arrears with its contribution shall not be entitled to vote, nor, if the Contracting Party concerned is a member of the European Economic Community, shall the Community be entitled to exercise the vote of that Contracting Party according to Article 19 of the Convention.

Rule 42

1. Unless otherwise provided by the Convention or the Protocols, decisions, recommendations and resolutions shall be made by a two-thirds or three-quarters majority of the Contracting Parties present and voting.

2. For the purpose of these rules, the phrase "Contracting Parties present and voting" means Contracting Parties present and casting an affirmative or negative vote. Contracting Parties which abstain from voting are considered as not voting. Contracting Parties participating at the Meeting or the Conference who are not present at the sitting at which voting takes place shall be considered as not present.

Rule 43

Voting shall normally be by show of hands. However, any Contracting Party may request a roll-call vote which shall be taken in the alphabetical order of the names of the Contracting Parties in French, beginning with the Contracting Party whose name is drawn by lot by the President.

Rule 44

The vote of each Contracting Party participating in a roll-call vote shall be recorded in the relevant documents of the Meeting or of the Conference.

Rule 45

1. Procedural decisions are taken by a simple majority.

2. Any difference of opinion as to the question whether the matter is of a procedural or substantive nature is also decided by a simple majority.

3. If a vote is equally divided, a second vote shall be taken. If this vote also is equally divided, the proposal shall be regarded as rejected.
Rule 46

After the President has announced the beginning of voting, no representative shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting. The President may permit the Contracting Parties to explain their votes, either before or after the voting. The President may limit the time to be allowed for such explanations. The President shall not permit the proposer of a proposal or of an amendment to explain his vote on his own proposal or amendment.

Rule 47

Sound records of the Meeting or of the Conference, and possibly of its committees and working groups, shall be kept by the Secretariat in accordance with the practice of the United Nations.

Rule 48

1. The Contracting Parties may recommend, taking duly into account financial implications, to the Executive Director the convening of ad hoc meetings, either of representatives of the Contracting Parties and of States referred to in Rule 5 of the present rules, or of Governmental experts in order to study problems which, because of their specialized nature, could not fruitfully be discussed during the normal sittings.

2. The terms of reference of these ad hoc meetings and the questions to be discussed shall be determined by the Contracting Parties.

3. Unless otherwise decided each ad hoc meeting shall elect its own officers.

4. These rules of procedure shall apply mutatis mutandis to the subsidiary bodies and ad hoc meetings.

Rule 49

These rules of procedure may be amended by a decision of the Meeting or Conference taken by a Simple majority [Two-thirds majority] [Three-fourths majority] of the Contracting Parties present and voting.

Rule 50

In the event of any conflict between any provision of these rules and any provision of the Convention, the Convention shall prevail.
