TIGER

Location:
Asia

Apex predators keep balance in the ecosystems where they live

Over the last century world tiger population has declined by 95%

Today there are only 3500 wild tigers in the world—more exist in captivity in the US and China than exist in the wild