

PRINCIPLE 10:

Transparency, Accountability and Citizen Engagement in Environmental Matters

25 June 2014, 12h – 13.30h, Room 11

During this 90 minute session, panelists will present latest developments regarding transparency, accountability and citizen engagement in environmental matters (Principle 10 of the Rio Declaration from 1992). Presentations will be followed by a Q&A period.

MODERATOR

Alexander Juras | UNEP

PANELISTS

Javier García | Ministry of Environment, Chile

Environmental Democracy in Latin America and the Caribbean: Towards a new regional instrument

Lalanath de Silva | World Resources Institute

Counting, Changing and Scaling Environmental Democracy: The New Environmental Democracy Index & the Post-2015 Development Agenda

Achim Halpaap | UNITAR, Stephen Stec | Central European University

The Bali Guideline Project: Voluntary International Standards on Environmental Democracy

Tsvetelina Filipova | The Regional Environmental Center for Central and Eastern Europe

Building Bridges between Regions: the Forum for Exchange of Experience on Principle 10 Implementation

REGIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER

WORLD
RESOURCES
INSTITUTE

The Access
Initiative

unitar

United Nations Institute for Training and Research