

thank you madam chair;

About chapter 4 entitle environmental related instrument, my delegation would like to note that, trade and human rights issues, have their own instruments and it seems that involving these challengeable topics in environmental instruments not only does not help, but also make the progress more complex and controversial. furthermore my delegation disagree to politicising the environmental instrument which makes it weaker.

thank you