DRAFT DECISION

The Conference of the Parties

Considering article 2 of the Bamako convention which automatically includes within the scope of the convention hazardous substances which have been banned, cancelled or refused registration by government regulatory action, or voluntarily withdrawn from registration in the country of manufacture, for human health or environmental reasons;

Stressing the need to consider local environmental, scientific, technical, economic and social conditions when assessing the risks posed by chemicals to human health and the environment;

Considering that the automatic application of article 2 has a high potential to cause contradictions with the national legislation of the States Parties;

Recalling Article 17 of the Convention which states that any Party may propose amendments to this Convention;

Having examined the proposal to amend the Bamako Convention submitted by a Party to the convention;

Decides:

1. Article 2, paragraph 1 (d) of the Convention is amended as follows:

instead of :
“(d) Hazardous substances which have been banned, cancelled or refused registration by government regulatory action, or voluntarily withdrawn from registration in the country of manufacture, for human health or environmental reasons.”

read:

3. “The Conference of the Parties shall review on a regular basis the substances which have been banned, cancelled or refused registration by government regulatory action, or voluntarily withdrawn from registration in the country of manufacture, for human health or environmental reasons. For each of these substances the Conference of the Parties make the decision whether the substance shall fall within the scope of this convention or not. In case of a decision to put the substance under the scope of this convention, the substance is listed in Annex I.B.”

2. Annex I to the convention is amended accordingly as follows:

   Instead of :

" ANNEX I - CATEGORIES OF WASTES WHICH ARE HAZARDOUS WASTES

Waste Streams:

......

Wastes having as constituents:"

Read:
