

AGENDA ITEM 3 UK

The UK welcomes the work undertaken by the Scientific Advisory Committee and notes the significant developments in the evidence base since 2016.

In light of the rapid development of the evidence base, the UK would like to urge the Secretariat to consider how recent and future developments of the evidence base will be reported to UNEA 5 now that resolutions on marine litter are unlikely to be negotiated until 2022.