

Thank you, madam chair.

First, I would like to thank the secretariat for the guidance document for the principal functions of the science-policy panel.

And referring to the 4 principal functions stated in the resolution 5/8 . The comprehensive horizon scanning process can strongly support the institutional capacities,

And it is important to emphasize the need to provide the financial and technical support to the developing countries for the capacity building and that to ensure comprehensive and effectiveness findings for the instrument, and with regard to facilitating information-sharing with countries, it will support the efforts by providing the relevant scientific information especially for the developing countries who seek to reach it already.

Thank you chair
