Intergovernmental negotiating committee to develop an international legally binding instrument on plastic pollution, including in the marine environment
Second session
Paris, 29 May–2 June 2023

Information submitted by the Secretariat of the International Labour Organization (ILO)

Note by the secretariat

1. The International Labour Office, the permanent secretariat of the International Labour Organization (ILO) has submitted the following information that could be of relevance to the intergovernmental negotiating committee:

   (a) Guidelines for a just transition towards environmentally sustainable economies and societies for all, available at link;

   (b) Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 197), available at link;

   (c) Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), available at link;

   (d) Occupational Health Services Convention, 1985 (No. 161), available at link;

   (e) Chemicals Convention, 1990 (No. 170), available at link;

   (f) Prevention of Major Industrial Accidents Convention, 1993 (No. 174), available at link;

   (j) Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Recommendation, 2006 (No. 197), available at link;

   (k) Occupational Safety and Health Recommendation, 1981 (No. 164), available at link;

   (l) Occupational Health Services Recommendation, 1985 (No. 171), available at link;

   (m) Chemical Recommendation, 1990 (No. 177), available at link;

   (o) Prevention of Major Industrial Accidents Recommendation, 1993 (No. 181), available at link;

   (p) List of Occupational Diseases Recommendation (No. 194), available at link;

   (q) The Fundamental conventions on occupational safety and health, available at link;

   (c) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at work, available at link.