UNEP JUNIOR PROFESSIONAL OFFICER REQUEST

General Information
Post Title: Associate Programme Officer,
Unit: Economic and Trade Policy Unit, Resources and Markets Branch, Industry and Economy Division
Location: Geneva (Economic and Trade Policy Unit)
Duration: 2 years
Posting period: 31 July 2023 to 8 September 2023 at 11:59pm KST

Background information on UNEP and the requesting Unit

The UN Environment Programme (UNEP) is the voice for the environment within the United Nations system. UNEP acts as a catalyst, advocate, educator and facilitator to promote the wise use of the global environment and sustainable development. The Industry and Economy Division at UNEP plays a leading role in the Green Economy Initiative and in the transition to sustainable consumption and production patterns, which aim to shift national economies onto a new path, in which jobs and economic growth are driven by increased investment in green sectors, and by a switch of production practices and consumers’ preferences towards environmentally friendly goods and services.

Located within the Economy Division, the Resources and Markets Branch examines how economics, trade, and finance interact with the environment and contribute to sustainable development at the local, national, regional and global levels. The Resources and Markets Branch support countries through analytical studies in partnerships with UN agencies, intergovernmental institutions, governments, academic institutes, businesses and environmental groups to support the shift to an inclusive green economy and help deliver the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Why is the Junior Professional Officer requested/needed?

Among its areas of work, the Economic and Trade Policy Unit supports global efforts on finance and economic transformation for sustainability and advises countries on macro-economic planning and policy as well as sectoral policy.

The Junior Professional Officer will support the increasing demand of the Economic Policy Team on strategic planning and analytical work according to the Inclusive Green and Circular Economy theory of change and results frameworks. The role involves supporting the designing and developing macro-economic policy for sustainability (esp. Green and Circular Economies) to address three planetary crises, namely climate change, nature loss and pollution, in collaboration with thematic leads of the unit (sustainable public procurement, green fiscal policy, sustainable trade, sustainable infrastructure), sectoral leads (food and agricultural sector, plastics, textiles, buildings and construction) across UNEP and UNEP’s key external partners (e.g. GEF Secretariat, IMF, OECD, MDBs, PAGE (Partnership of Action on Green Economy) partners including ILO, UNITAR, UNIDO and UNDP); providing substantive guidance to implementing partners, international and local consultants; and providing general support to the Head of Unit and Branch.

Supervision

The Junior Professional Officer shall report directly to Ms. Joy Aeree Kim, Acting Head, Economic and Trade Policy Unit.

Content and methodology of the supervision

The incumbent will be guided in his/her work and supervised by the first appraising officer. Incumbent and supervisor will jointly define an annual work plan, including objectives, timelines, and success criteria. Regular feedback on the progress of activities is obtained by the supervisor through review of work in process. The Junior Professional Officer’s performance appraisal will take place twice a year: a mid-term review and a final review in October and March respectively. This also entails the assessments of accomplishments, review of problems, discussions on job-satisfaction; discussion of development plan and learning objectives (see training and learning elements), guidance to be provided in development of the work plan and project implementation. The incumbent is expected to carry out the duties independently under general supervision and to consult with the supervisor on issues of policy or other sensitive matters. Final results of each set of activities are reviewed for attainment of objectives and quality of work.

Upon joining the team, the JPO will be provided with a two-week in-person induction, which will introduce the JPO to UNEP (mandates, structure), its Medium-Term Strategy and Programme of Work, all divisions and regional office, and the Industry and Economy Division, and its branch and the unit. In the meantime, technical induction will be organized to explain the Inclusive Green and Circular Economy policy, including its vision, technical approach, governance, partnership, resource mobilisation and project implementation. Key references, documents, reports, PowerPoint slides and briefings will be shared with the JPO to strengthen the knowledge on the topic of macro-economic and sectoral policy for sustainability. The induction will include bilateral meetings with the supervisor, team members and UNEP staff across the house working finance and economic transformation, structured provision of background and guidance documents, and attendance of relevant courses and weekly team meeting within the unit and monthly unit meeting.
