

INC-3 THEMATIC SIDE EVENT

MOBILISING RESOURCES

TO SUPPORT ACTION

TO END PLASTIC POLLUTION

TUESDAY | TIME

NOV 14 | 13:30 - 14:45 EAT

CONFERENCE ROOM 14, UNON Headquarters

OVERVIEW

The upcoming international legally binding instrument has the ambition to transform how plastics are produced, used and disposed. Well-thought-out provisions regarding means of implementation, both from the public and private sectors, will be crucial. Some of the questions addressed in this side event include:

- What are the macroeconomic costs and the investment needs required across the entire plastic value chain to achieve the elimination of plastic pollution?
- What are the roles of private and public finance and what needs to be done to leverage them at an adequate level?
- What are the particular needs of developing countries and what are the implications for the global plastics treaty?
