

GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE AND ENVIRONMENT

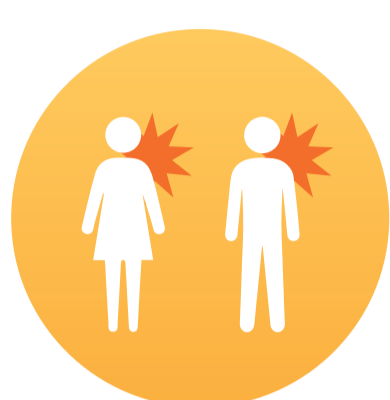

#ORANGETHEWORLD IN #16DAYS

THE CAUSE OF GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE: UNEQUAL DISTRIBUTION OF POWER IN SOCIETY BETWEEN WOMEN AND MEN

DIFFERENT FORMS OF VIOLENCE:

PSYCHOLOGICAL

PHYSICAL

SEXUAL

CAUSES OF GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

NATURAL RESOURCES DEGRADATION

Walking long distances to:

FETCH WATER

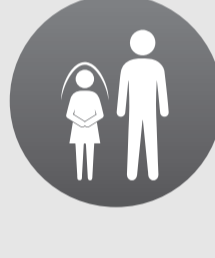

COLLECT FIREWOOD

CLIMATE CHANGE

CROP FAILURE AND FOOD INSECURITY

CHILD MARRIAGE TO ENSURE FOOD SECURITY FOR THE FAMILY

DISASTERS AND CONFLICTS

DISPLACEMENT

TRAFFICKING

WOMEN AND GIRLS ARE SUBJECT TO:

RAPE

SEXUAL ASSAULT

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

VIOLENCE AS MEN LOSE THEIR BREADWINNING ROLES

DID YOU KNOW

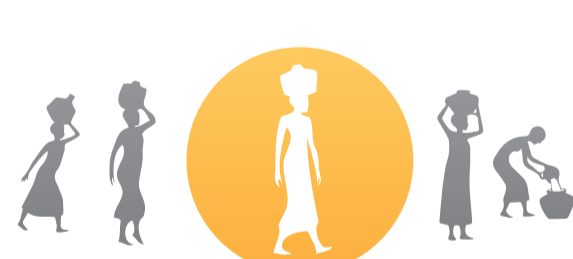

1 IN 3 WOMEN have experienced physical and/or sexual violence in their lives

700 MILLION GIRLS are forced to marry before they turn 18 years old

MEN AND BOYS are also victims of violence, however these are often underreported

Women in sub-Saharan Africa spend 16 MILLION HOURS collecting water and in doing so are exposed to violence

HOW TO PREVENT GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

Restore degraded ecosystems to make collecting water and firewood easier and safer

Build resilience of women, men, girls and boys to cope with shocks

Ask your government to put in place laws and policies to safeguard girls and women's rights

Give women agency and decision making power

Empower women to be stewards of environment

Make sure women, men, girls and boys have equitable access to:

- natural resources (land, water)
- education and information
- credit
- markets

Invest in women and girls so that they can build a better future for all
