

Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd

The world is enormously devastated due to ecological degradation that has led to decline of quality of life and loss of biodiversity that would otherwise be use for cure for all disease. Among the attributing factors to these is the wide spread of GMOs and deforestation often perceived as development at the expense of ecological degradation.

I hereby propose: Nurturing green economy and to total eradication of Genetically Modified Organism